

News Release

Local Students Receive University Degree

By Krista Lemos on Monday, August 22, 2005

The Office of the Registrar at the University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) recently announced its list of summer 2005 graduates. Twenty-one (21) students completed their degree requirements during summer session 2005. Graduates are listed below with their hometown and degree(s) earned.

UMC enrolls approximately 1,200 full-time students and is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The college offers both bachelor of science (BS) and associate in applied science (AAS) degrees.

UMC is internationally known as the original "Laptop University" A laptop computer is provided to every full-time student, and the campus provides Internet access virtually everywhere. U.S. News and World Report has recognized the unique technology-based learning environment at UMC, ranking it a "Best College" for the past eight consecutive years, and The Wall Street Journal has called UMC "the College of the Future–Today."

Students completing their degree requirements during summer session 2005 include:

MINNESOTA

Anoka – Daniel J. Schei, bachelor of manufacturing management degree, manufacturing management

Crookston – Thomas A. Lindo, bachelor of science degree, information technology management with an emphasis in systems administration; Melissa L. Martin, associate in applied science degree in marketing/management; Travis M. Scheving, bachelor of science degree, business management with an emphasis in marketing and a minor in information technology management and bachelor of science degree, sport and recreation management

L. Sathoff, with high distinction, bachelor of science degree, equine industries management

Egan – Angela T. Altepeter, bachelor of science degree, applied studies; Darren K. Lilja, bachelor of science degree, natural resources with an emphasis in water resource management

Easton – Adam J. Grunzke, bachelor of science degree, sport and recreation management

Greenbush – Rhonda A. Miller, bachelor of science degree, information technology management with an emphasis in systems administration and a minor in business management

Hill City – Daniel L. Neary, bachelor of science degree, natural resources with an emphasis in natural resource management

Marshall – Tavia S. Taylor, bachelor of science degree, hotel, restaurant, and institutional management with an emphasis in hotel/restaurant management

North Branch – Jonathan M. Hanson, bachelor of science degree, natural resources with emphases in natural resources law enforcement and park management

Rochester – Cynthia J. Phillippi, bachelor of applied health degree, applied health

St. Anthony – James R. Dusheck, bachelor of science degree, agricultural business

Spring Lake Park – James R. Pendroy, bachelor of science degree, natural resources with an emphasis in water resource management

Warren – Daria B. Westberg, bachelor of science degree, early childhood education with an emphasis in primary education

NORTH DAKOTA

Grand Forks – Marty D. Dalzell, bachelor of science degree, information technology management with an emphasis in application development

Mandan – Eric J. Stromstad, bachelor of science degree, golf facilities and turf systems and associate in applied science degree, agriculture with an emphasis in horticulture

TEXAS

Belton – Vickie L. Eckermann, bachelor of applied health degree, applied health

WISCONSIN

Mequon – Eva Cernegova, bachelor of science degree, hotel, restaurant, and institutional management with an emphasis in resort and spa management

News Categories

Awards and Recognition

Tweet

Like 0

Share

News Home

News Archives

Small Campus. Big Degree..

- Employment

Events Calendar

Academic Calendar

Library

Directories

Maps, Directions & Parking

Quick Facts

Bookstore

- Faculty & Staff

Email & Calendar

Contact Webmaster

System Website

Home

2900 University Ave., Crookston, MN 56716
800-862-6466 | 218-281-6510 | umcinfo@umn.edu

© 2021 Regents of the University of Minnesota. All rights reserved.
The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator and employer.
Privacy Statement